KILLED BY A TRAIN.-Mr. Joseph Harrover was struck and killed by train of the Washington-Southern Railway near Magnolia Springs, a short distance below this city, last night. Mr. Harrover was a track-walker, and had evidently seated himself on the track during the night, and it is supposed had fallen asleep. While in this condition a train running at a high rate of speed came along, striking the unfortunate man and killing him instantly. His lamp, hammer, etc., were alongside of the track when his lifeless body was picked up. Mr. Harrover lived near Lorton, lower Fairfax county, and had been an employee of the Washington-Southern Railway for 29 years. He was 52 years old and was well known in this city, he having for many years attended the Alexandria market.

COMMITTEE MEETING .- The finance committee held meetings on Thursday and Friday nights and considered and acted upon the many papers which had been referred to them—the bills of the examiners for City Engineer and Superintendent of Gas, petition for tax abatements, ordinance granting permis sions to the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon, Railway Company to furnish electric current for motors, machinery, fans, &c. Reports will be made on all the papers to Council at its meeting next week. The commit-tee will hold another meeting tonight, examine the estimates and prepare the appropriation bill for the fiscal year

COUNCIL MEETING .- At the request of a number of members of the City Council who wish to visit Washington on Tuesday evening to witnes the parade of the Shriners, the Mayor will call a meeting of the Council on Monday night next which meeting will take the place of the regular Tuesday night meeting.

A MUCH-NEEDED RAIN .- The slight showers of yesterday were followed about midnight by heavy showers, accompanied by thunder and lightning. The rain continued at intervals during the night and today, and vegetation, which had been suffering, has been freshened considerably.
